

What About a Supply of Hosiery?

SPECIAL FOR SATURDAY

Another new lot of Ladies' White Separate Skirts at 98c each. These are made of good quality Cotton Gabardine and are Skirts that will give a lot of good, serviceable wear and satisfaction.

Saturday only 98c

Surely we could not ask a more opportune question, when low shoes are being worn by practically every woman you meet, and, too, the new Sport Outfits must have the proper finish to them in Hosiery. We have just received another large shipment of Wayne Knit Hosiery which puts our stock in excellent shape to take care of your every need. Be sure you have a good supply before you start on your vacation trip. But why wait until you need them? Why not purchase at once and be supplied?

Fibre-Silk Boot Stockings at 25c, 39c and 50c

They look like silk, and some say they wear better. At any rate, you cannot possibly secure better Hosiery or Stockings that will feel so good on the feet at these prices.

Pure Thread Silk Hose at 50c, 75c, $1.00 and up

We have searched the market thoroughly, and we find that we have the best Silk Hose values that are obtainable in either Blacks, White or Fancy Colors. Remember, the best heavy-weight Silk Hose you can buy at these prices.

Lisle Hose at 25c and 39c

In these we feature Wayne Knit, and they are without a doubt the best Hose on the market to-day. They come in all the different weights and styles to please your individual taste.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Blake of Merchant street, Mr. and Mrs. George Stewart of Warren street and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Anderson and daughter, Caroline, of Merchant street, left in a party for a 10 days' tour of Buffalo, Niagara Falls and the Thousand Islands this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cummings and their son, Leon, of Hill street left this morning for Buffalo, N. Y., going by automobile with the party of Shriners who left this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Cummings will spend about ten days in Buffalo visiting his brother, Frank Cummings, who resides there. Mr. Cummings will also attend the session of the Imperial council, A. A. O. N. M. S. of North America.

Vehicles of transportation between Barre and Montpelier did a "land office" business to-day because of the rush of people wishing to attend the circus in the latter city. The steam lines and the electric car line carried big crowds and the jitney automobiles had more than they could attend to. One Ford car, labeled "Public," carried no less than 11 people from Barre to Montpelier. "Hey, is your jitney full?" yelled five people as the driver of a Ford jitney pulled up at the curb. "Land sakes, yes, there's 25 wants to go," replied the jitney man, and the supplicants for seats panted along to the next vehicle.
